L'artista Sinta Tantra in mostra a Londra. C'è pure il libro sul Palio

Fino al 20 dicembre, la mostra personale di Sinta Tantra "Santuari della Gioia" presso la Kristin Hjellegjerde Gallery di Tower Bridge presenta un libro sui drappelloni di Palio, "In Hoc Palio Vincens" di Edizioni Extempora. Un'occasione per conoscere le esperienze paliesche dei pittori di questo secolo.

Sinta Tantra artist on display in London. There is also the book on the Palio

A book on the Palio in London at the Sinta Tantra exhibition. Until December 20th, the Balinese artist Sinta Tantra will be the protagonist of the solo exhibition entitled 'Shrines of Gaiety' (Shrines of Joy) curated by the prestigious Kristin Hjellegjerde Gallery in its Tower Bridge space. There is no shortage of the publication on drappelloni edited by Diego Consales and his book 'In Hoc Palio Vincens' by Edizioni Extempora, the volume that narrates the paliesque experiences of the drappelloni painters of this century and tells of the only work that he will not be able to exhibit: the Palio she painted for her career in August 2017 and guarded by Onda.
