

ART & CULTURE

Art charity to benefit 'floating hospital' in Jakarta

ASMARA WREKSONO
THE JAKARTA POST

Jakarta | Sat, April 15, 2017 | 08:15 am

Art aficionados interested in the auction attended the Artwork Preview session at LAFLO space in Simprug, South Jakarta from April 6-8. The artworks featured include a painting by Andy Dewantoro entitled "Monument 1986", a painting by Sinta Tantra entitled "Providence In Sapphire", a painting by Oky Rey Montha entitled "Self Pollution", Entang Wiharso's "Floating Garden" and Ay Tjoe Christine's oil painting "Am I A Safe Creature". Proceeds from the auction will be donated by the artists to doctorSHARE as a form of support to the RSA program.

The art auction will be guided by professional art curator Deborah Iskandar, who encourages art lovers from all areas of business and art to support doctorSHARE.

The charity concert will feature Indonesian pianist maestro Ananda Sukarlan at the Segara Ballroom, The Dharmawangsa Hotel, Jakarta. The concert is expected to raise up to Rp. 2 billion via ticket sales, donations and sponsorships.

"This charity concert for RSA Nusa Waluya II organized by Lions Club International will be very beneficial for those who have difficulty accessing medical care due to a lack of access and infrastructure, especially in the province of Maluku. This event is a real synergy for all of us to achieve Healthy Indonesia," Dr. Lie Dharmawan said in an official statement.

Tags : Art, Arts-And-Culture, Charity, Concert, Art-Auction, DoctorSHARE, Floating-Hospital, Lions-Club