The Top 7 Art Exhibitions to see in London this week

Art critic Tabish Khan brings you 'The Top Art Exhibitions to see in London' this week 27/08/18. Each one comes with a concise review to help you decide whether it's for you. Hurry, as all close soon:

Sinta Tantra: your private sky @ Kristin Hjellegjerde

Light, mirrors, colour. Sinta Tantra has converted the gallery into a beautifully composed work of art itself. Through the blueprint-esque works we see its conception and then when viewing our reflection we become a part of it. This level of scale perfectly suits Tantra's work. Until 1 September.
