

7 Highlights from the Tumurun Museum, Solo.

Sabtu, 4 April 2020 13:50

Reporter : Shani Rasyid

Merdeka.com - Tumurun Museum is an art museum located in the city of Solo. The museum which is located at Jalan Kebvival Nasional No. 2 Sriwedari, Laweyan, Solo is a museum owned by Iwan Kurniawan Lukminto, son of HM Lukminto, founder of the Asian textile company, PT Sritex.

Reporting from Brilio.net on Wednesday (11/20/2019), Iwan founded this museum as a form of dedication to his father who is also a collector and connoisseur of art. Because it is privately owned, this museum cannot be accessed every day and carelessly, you know. Visitors who want to see collections in Tumurun must register themselves and their groups first. Wonder how this unique museum portrait? Here goes the portrait.

Downstairs for Instagramable Works

Meanwhile the lower floor is home to Instagramable contemporary works. There are works by Kei Imazu, Sinta Tantra, Eko Nugroho, Entang Wiharso, and Heri Dono. In addition, there are also works by Rudi Mantofani, Mochtar Sarman, Eddie Hara, Eddy Susanto, Handiwirman Saputra, and Syaiful Garibaldi.