

ARTS

Meet Asia's Most Influential: The Culture List 2021

Words by TATLER ASIA | March 03, 2021

Tatler introduces an ambitious new directory of the most influential individuals who are defining the culture of Asia: The Culture List

VIEW GALLERY

SHOW AS LIST

This month sees the introduction of the Culture List, the second instalment of Tatler's Asia's Most Influential series that identifies leaders across Asia in their respective fields making indelible impacts this year. Focusing on the industries of museums, performing arts, literature and cinema, the selections include decorated Hong Kong film director Ann Hui, the Taiwanese choreographer Cheng Tsung-Lung, and mainland Chinese artist Xu Bing.

41 / 126

Sinta Tantra

Profession: Artist

Location: Indonesia

Impact statement: This Anglo-Balinese artist creates murals of arresting geometric beauty

Born in New York to Balinese parents, and resident in both Indonesia and the UK, Sinta Tantra draws influences from this varied background to create site-specific, abstract architectural murals that combine geometric shapes, sharp lines and planes of vibrant colour. Her work has graced Hong Kong's Lee Tung Avenue and Facebook's London headquarters, while perhaps her most famous piece, A Beautiful Sunset Mistaken for a Dawn (2012), stretched 300m over a rail bridge across London's River Thames.