Seolhaewon, a comprehensive resort located in Yangyang, is attracting attention by pre-opening the work 'Seolhaewon Art Project' by world-famous artist 'Synta Tantra (pictured)' ahead of the grand opening.

Sinta Tantra's work, which Seol Hae-won unveiled on the 14th, is six paintings along with the new mural 'Rising Pink Moon'. With a futuristic pattern mural as a motif, it expresses the value of 'complete rest' by giving the space a sense of vitality and identity.

Indonesian-British artist Sinta Tantra was born in New York, USA. During the 2012 London Olympics, she was invited as a public artist for the main bridge in Canary Wharf, London, and decorated the side of the bridge with a 300-meter-tall mural. The artist's idea that the space called a wall should not be a barrier between people and nature, but a space of rest and rest, and Seol Hae-won's philosophy are in harmony with Seol Hae-won's philosophy.
