STORY OF LIFE

Sinta Tantra amazes the city's art devotees through her art exhibition titled "Constellation of Beings". Held at ISA Art & Design Gallery, the talented artist translates her life experience and memories about her family into several beautiful paintings. These paintings explore the sense of being tangible and belonging, the fluidity of migration, identity, and the shift from humans to global beings, and merging the past and the present to create new dialogues and ways of relooking and reconnecting.

WOMEN OF ART

Women can be whatever they want, especially in the world of art. One best example is the female artists featured in the Titicara Exhibition. Located at Selasar Sunaryo Art Space, this annual art exhibition showcases the beautiful artworks of 23 women artists from five respected countries: Indonesia, Japan, the Philippines, Australia, and Singapore. The exhibition highlights the importance of technical abilities and understanding material properties as the foundation for artists manifesting their concept, imagination, or artistic expression.

THE DEEP INTERACTION

ROH, one of the acknowledged art galleries in Jakarta, is back to quench the thirst for art by presenting a must-see exhibition of the town, "Personalia", a solo exhibition of the art collective Tromarama. The art exhibition expands the practice of Tromarama in a new range of methodologies of expression through a series of boisterous situational immersive installations, videos, sounds and sculptures. The exhibition highlights the blurry interaction in the digital world, where the time between work and leisure is often mixed and overlapped.

AN INVESTMENT IN KNOWLEDGE

Education is undoubtedly one of the critical aspects in enhancing the well-being of its citizens, improving its human capital, and advancing the country's economy. For Indonesian students who want to pursue their dreams of reaching a higher level of education, the World Education Expo Indonesia 2022 is a must-visit event. Located at the heart of the capital city of Jakarta, the educational exhibition will open its doors to the public and will be attended by more than 10,000 students from 150 schools. Moreover, there is no need to give much effort to visit the exhibition as there will be a pick-up bus to take visitors to the venue.

BUILDING BACK BETTER

Regardless of the headwinds created by mutating viruses and setbacks, the F&B and tourism industries are ready to shine after years of the onset of the Covid 19-pandemic. To support and elevate Indonesia's hospitality sector, the Food, Hotel and Tourism Bali 2022 will hold its 12th international exhibition featuring avant-garde pieces of equipment, food, beverages, and services. It will feature various interesting innovations and workshops to help people better understand how to make these industries back on top. It also predicted that around 10,000 guests would come and make a deal that day—offering a great chance to meet potential clients or distributors.
