

Palestinian dishes from the brunch menu at Akub in West London © Matthew Hague

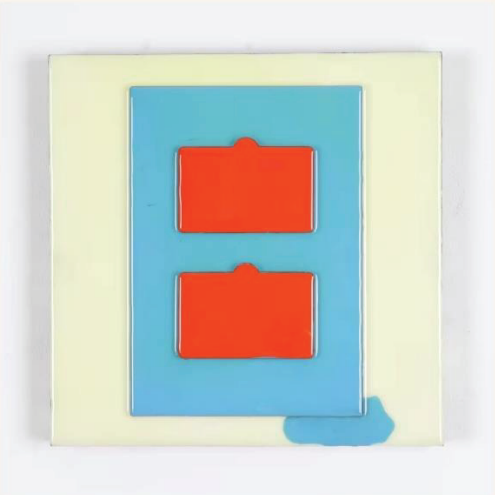

Marion Willingham YESTERDAY

Asian contemporary art supporting children with SEN

One of the anonymous artworks for the Sovereign Art Foundation sale © Courtesy of the artist and The Sovereign Art Foundation

All of the artists included are alumni of the Sovereign Asian Art Prize © Courtesy of the artist and The Sovereign Art Foundation

The anonymous exhibition at Art Central, Hong Kong, brings together more than 80 alumni of the Sovereign Asian Art Prize. Each artist – including Alfredo and Isabel Aquilizan, Debbie Han and Chui Pui Chee – has created a square artwork, some painted, others with sculptural elements, to be sold for HK$2,500 (around £250). Buyers will discover the creator of their chosen work once the sale is complete. All proceeds will be donated to the Sovereign Art Foundation’s expressive arts programmes, including the flagship Make It Better, which provides art therapy and mental health support for children with special educational needs and their carers. 28-31 March, artcentralhongkong.com