Exhibitions

Estorick Collection of Modern Italian Art 'Breaking Lines' (until 11 May). The Estorick Collection explores experimental poetry with two intersecting displays: 'Futurism and the Origins of Experimental Poetry' and 'Dom Sylvester Houédard and Concrete Poetry in Post-war Britain'. Enter promocode RAMAG when buying your tickets at estorickcollection.com to enjoy two-for-one entry on adult admissions. See advertisement on page 78.

Foundling Museum 'Self-Made: Reshaping Identities' (until 1 June) is an exhibition of ceramics reflecting on identity and self-creation. It includes Phoebe Collings-James, Rachel Kneebone, Matt J Smith and Renee So, four artists whose works touch on aspects of gender, sexuality and cultural heritage. Book online using code SMRA50 for 50 per cent off full price tickets. Visit foundlingmuseum.org.uk and see advertisement on this page.

Turner's House 'Turner's Kingdom: Beauty, Birds and Beasts' (23 April-26 Oct) marks the 250th birthday of JMW Turner RA, and includes his rarely-seen bird studies alongside a menagerie of other animals. Also opening in April, 'Light is Therefore Colour' brings together new works by Sinta Tantra (For I must have You or No one, 2025; below) and Eileen Cooper RA in dialogue with Turner's former home to celebrate the artist's exploration of light, introducing a fresh perspective within his historic space. Enjoy 50 per cent off admission to both shows on presentation of this page. Visit turnershouse.org and see advertisement on page 81.
