

RA Magazine's pick of this week's art events (24 - 30 May)

Sinta Tantra

Holland Park, until 4 November 2013

RA Schools alumna Sinta Tantra creates kaleidoscopic cut-vinyl works that line the interior or wrap the exterior of buildings (for instance, at the recent Liverpool Biennial; for a review read this blog from last year).

Installation view of Sinta Tantra's 'The Eccentricity of Zero', Holland Park. Courtesy Sinta Tantra.

Lately she has been producing free-standing sculptures in different forms, all adorned with astute arrangements of bright, angular shapes. She has just installed a new work in glass in the bucolic environs of Holland Park; The Eccentricity of Zero (2013) comprises two massive transparent circles enlivened by interior geometry in primary colours.